

STANDING ORDER NO. 2/83

SUB: SAMPARK SABHA

The following procedure is laid down for organising Sampark Sabhas or Sammelans when ever the Director General of Police or other Senior Officers, visit the districts, RAC Units or Training Institutions, to ensure uniformity and proper sequence.

1. Constables and other ranks will be seated in neat rows on the ground in the centre and officers and subordinate officers on the flanks in chairs.
2. The D.G. or other senior visiting officers will be seated preferably on a dias accompanied by the senior-most local officer.

3. A bugle note will announce the arrival of the D.G. or other senior visiting officer at the venue of the Sampark Sabha/Sammelan.

The Sampark Sabha/Sammelan will be called to 'Savdhan' and the attendance reported to the D.G. or other senior visiting officer by the officer-in-charge of the Sammelan/Sampark Sabha.

5. After the D.G. or other senior visiting officer has taken his seat on the dias, the Sammelan will be called to 'Vishram'.

6. The DG or other senior visiting officer, will then address the officers and other ranks and invite the participants to articulate issues which are of general or universal application to the whole force or a particular category of personnel.

7. The forum of Sampark Sabha/Sammelan is not meant for ventilating grievances or personal problems which should ordinarily be attended to by the superior officers of the personnel, in the first

At the conclusion of the Sampark Sabha/Sammelan when the D.G. or other senior visiting officer, is about to leave the venue of the Sampark Sabha/Sammelan, the officer Incharge of the Sammelan will call the Sammelan to 'Savdhan' and the bugler will sound another note signifying the conclusion of the Sampark Sabha/Sammelan.

These orders will come into force with immediate effect.
